

Enraged and Sick

Enraged and sick of the world's decline he strove to right its wrongs by eating all performers of annoying, bad pop songs

Like Journey's songs - they're all so bad (he knew this to be true) so he chopped up lots of vegetables and made a Journey stew

And Neil Diamond's songs weren't bad until "Sweet Caroline" so the hardest part of eating Neil was choosing the right wine

Then all those awful '80s bands he tried to eat them all but after Poison, Ratt and Crue he coughed up 12 hair balls

And who would argue? Who could stand the drech of "Macho Man"?
So the Village People he ground up and fried them in a pan

Sometimes drinks would help digest (mostly wines and beers) but he made a thick, sweet chocolate shake when he ate Britney Spears

And Lady Ga Ga, Justin Bieber, both nice with herbal tea.
Let's not forget Blake Shelton, wouldn't you agree?

By now, I'm sure you've gone quite pale and think this scene pathetic but then again, it would improve our musical aesthetic.
